

CRACKSMEN BOOT MICHIGAN BANK; EXPLOSIVES USED

Escape With $3,000 After Practically Wrecking
the Building.

JACKSON, Mich., March 29.—Robbers blew open the safe in the Farmers and Merchants' Bank at Hanover at 2 o'clock this morning, and escaped with $3,000.

Six charges of explosives were used by the robbers.

The concussion burst out the front windows and so badly cracked the walls that the bank property is practically ruined.

Jackson officers are on the watch for the safe crackers.

POSTPONE CASE AGAINST ROYER

ROCKVILLE, Md., March 29.—State's Attorney Peter and Attorney Talbot, accused of maliciously poisoning stock belonging to Oliver G. Henley, today agreed to continue the case until the first Monday in May.

Anticipating that the case would come up for trial this morning, as originally scheduled by State's Attorney Peter, 200 or more citizens flocked to the court house and there was a merry scramble for the front seats.

When Judges Henderson and Motter mounted the bench Attorney Peter announced that the case would be continued until the May term of court.

In explanation of this Mr. Peter stated that there are a number of minor cases on the docket and it was likely that trial of them would take up the entire March term of court.

An unusually large number of witnesses had been summoned in the case against Royer and Mr. Peter explained that in view of the fact that it could not be estimated when the case would be reached he did not care to have the State put to the expense of paying the witnesses for attending court every day until the end of this term and then be notified to appear at the May term.

Attorneys Talbot and Talbot took the case on short notice and they were willing to agree to the postponement. It is understood that Royer will attempt to prove an alibi.

Among the witnesses who appeared at court house today were Farmer Henley, his wife, several friends and several colored men. All the witnesses returned to their homes in Laytonville immediately after Mr. Peter made his announcement in court.

Royer was in the city today. He appeared to be in the best of spirits. He treated his friends most cordially and declared he would not only be found not guilty of the charges against him, but would fight the case to the bitter end and satisfy his accusers that they are in the wrong.

This morning's session of court was devoted to the trial of a shooting case in which two negroes are involved.

MRS. YERKES-MIZNER IS FIGHTING WILL

CHICAGO, March 29.—Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes-Mizner, widow of Yerkes, the traction promoter, has refused to abide by the terms of her husband's will.

According to the will, she was to receive $200,000 in cash and the income from one-half the $12,000,000 estate after various minor bequests and debts had been disposed of.

Under the law she will receive approximately $4,000,000 worth of property. It is generally reported that Mrs. Yerkes is on friendly terms with her stepchildren. This is looked upon as significant.

There is no truth in the reported reconciliation of Mrs. Yerkes-Mizner with Wilson Mizner, the young Californian, whose marriage to her three weeks after her rich husband's death and subsequent sudden separation created a sensation. Her attorney says that as soon as the estate matter is settled Mrs. Yerkes-Mizner will apply for a divorce.

BROTHER-IN-LAW SUES FOR SUPPORT

OXFORD, Pa., March 29.—Asserting that by statute a man is under a duty to support his brother-in-law and other members of his wife's family, William Scott, of Chrome, near here, has had George Mason arrested upon a charge of non-support and extreme cruelty.

He wanted to put desertion in the warrant and make an appeal for alimony. Scott has made his home with Mason for years, being a brother to Mrs. Mason. Recently he has been acting so strangely, according to accounts, that Mason ordered him to change his behavior or leave. Scott then brought the suit for non-support.

Several weddings at Lombard, Md., which is not far from Chrome, have been postponed because the prospective bridegrooms are not willing to undertake matrimony if the law upholds Mr. Scott.

WOMAN SALOON KEEPERS IN KNOCK-DOWN BATTLE

SCRANTON, Pa., March 28.—Two women fighting, one of them belaboring the other with a poker, was the spectacle seen in Capouse avenue. The participants were Mrs. Sara O'Horo and Mrs. Anthony Walsh, both proprietors of saloons, and Mrs. O'Horo it was who wielded the poker. Mrs. Walsh was passing the O'Horo saloon, when Mrs. O'Horo rushed out and struck her over the head.

The first blow knocked the woman unconscious, but her assailant continued to beat her, and would probably have murdered her had she not been restrained by some passerby. It is asserted that the trouble was due to the fact that Mrs. Walsh had secured a license for the saloon conducted by Mrs. O'Horo.

MCLEARY BECOMES 2D ASSIST. P. M. G.

JAMES T. MCLEARY,
Former Congressman Who Became Second Assistant Postmaster General of the United States Today.

Minnesota Standpatter Succeeds Shallenberger in Postal Department.

James T. McCleary, of Minnesota, formerly Representative from that State, was this morning inducted into the office of Second Assistant Postmaster General, succeeding W. S. Shallenberger, whose resignation took effect today, at the close of ten years' service.

Mr. McCleary took the oath of office in the room of the Postmaster General, his commission being presented to him by his predecessor. The oath was administered by the assistant chief clerk, G. C. Thomson. The ceremony was witnessed by the heads of all the bureaus of the department, Mrs. McCleary, Mrs. Florence Johnson, Leslie McCleary, son and private secretary of the Second Assistant, C. S. Sagar, secretary, and Chief Clerk Holliday. After taking the oath, Mr. McCleary was formally presented to all the chiefs of bureaus, and later to the various employees.

The new official halls from the Second district of Minnesota, and served as Representative from that State from the Fifty-third to the Fifty-ninth Congresses, inclusive. At the last election for the Sixth Congress, being known as a "stand-patter," he was defeated by a narrow majority on account of his position on the tariff. Upon the resignation of Assistant Postmaster General Shallenberger he was appointed to the place. Before his public life Mr. McCleary was prominent in educational work in his State, beginning as a school teacher in early life, later being appointed as State superintendent and professor of history and civics in the State Normal School. He is the author of a manual of civics now in use in some of the schools of the country and several other educational publications, and was president of the Minnesota Educational Association when elected to Congress.

He is regarded as well adapted to carry out the policies begun by his predecessor during his ten years' tenure of office, and within an hour after his induction had entered vigorously into the discharge of his new duties.

SUICIDE ON BIRTHDAY WAS TO HAVE WED

CANTON, Ohio, March 29.—Miss Bertha McNally, twenty years of age, committed suicide by taking carbolic acid. It was Miss McNally's birthday, and was also to have been her wedding day. She was to have been married to Emil Knolle, a policeman on the Pittsburgh force.

Six weeks ago Knolle was taken with pneumonia and died in a hospital in Pittsburgh. Since that time Miss McNally has been despondent.

Woodward Promulgates Stringent Regulations To Prevent Contagion

Persons Living in House Where Scarlet Fever or Diphtheria Patient Lies, Forbidden to Engage in Business Connected With Food.

Dr. William C. Woodward, Health Officer, this morning presented to Commissioner MacFarland new regulations for the prevention of the spread of scarlet fever, diphtheria, measles, whooping cough, chickenpox, epidemic cerebro-spinal meningitis, and typhoid fever, in compliance with the law passed by Congress at its last session on the recommendation of the Commissioners, and which will be effective April 3. The regulations were approved by Commissioner MacFarland, subject to revision by the corporation counsel.

The regulations first provide that all persons having charge of patients affected with any of the contagious diseases subject to quarantine shall isolate the patient as thoroughly as possible, and maintain such isolation until recovery or death, except in the case of typhoid; disinfection of the room occupied by patients, and all bedding and articles used in their care; disinfection of the room occupied, and not to be used for three days after removal of patient and disinfection; disinfection of the room to be compulsory only on the order of the health department; patients suffering with these contagious diseases are prohibited from appearing on the public streets, schools, churches, stores, places of amusement, or public assemblages, or to use public conveyances, except such as may be designated by the health officer; to go or be carried over the public streets from place to place, without the approval of the health officer, provided, however, patient may be moved by order of a registered physician prior to the case being officially reported; but, in that case, the department must be advised of all the facts. Patients suffering from whooping cough may go upon the streets or be carried from place to place without authority from the health department, but not at such times and places as may expose others to the contagion.

No Unnecessary Exposure.
It is further provided that persons shall not expose themselves to contagious diseases unless they are acting in the capacity of nurse, attendant, or trained nurse, then before appearing in public they shall disinfect themselves and remove their outer garments worn in the sick room.

Sections 5 and 6 of the regulations are of such a stringent nature that if enforced they will meet with strong resistance and protest from certain residents of apartment houses. These sections are as follows:

"Section 5. No person residing in any dwelling house or in any apartments where there is in said dwelling house or apartments a patient suffering from diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, or epidemic cerebro-spinal meningitis, shall while so residing and during the continuance of such case attend public or private school or Sunday school, or, if the patient be suffering from diphtheria or scarlet fever, engage in the manufacture, preparation, storage, or sale of food."

Stringent Restriction.

"Sec. 6. No person who has resided in any dwelling house or in any apartments while there was in such dwelling house or apartments a patient suffering from diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, or epidemic cerebro-spinal meningitis, shall after the removal, death, or recovery of the patient, or after the removal of such person from such dwelling house or apartments, attend public or private school, or, if the patient was suffering from diphtheria or diphtheria, engage in the manufacture, preparation, or storage of food for sale, or in the sale of food, without the written permission of the health officer, for a period following the first proper isolation of the patient, and immediately following the completion of such disinfection, or any as may be directed by the health officer, and continuing if the patient was suffering from scarlet fever, diphtheria, or epidemic cerebro-spinal meningitis for seven days, or if the patient was suffering from measles for fourteen days."

Regulation of Funerals.

For the regulation of funerals it is provided that where death resulted from diphtheria, scarlet fever, or epidemic cerebro-spinal meningitis only adult members of the immediate family shall attend the funeral, and the funeral shall be held in a church or other public hall; sealed caskets are required and burial or cremation must be within two days after death. Carrying such dead bodies out of the District of Columbia and by cavities and wrapped in a sheet saturated with a solution of formaldehyde or similar disinfectant. Carriages used at such funerals must be thoroughly disinfected.

In all these contagious diseases warning signs will be put up by the health department on the outside of buildings, except in case of hotels or apartments, when the warning signs will be placed on the room door. The duties of health officers, inspectors, and others are defined.

The penalty for the violation of any of the provisions of the regulations is fixed at $5 maximum for the first offense and for any subsequent offense a fine not exceeding $100, or imprisonment not exceeding a period of three months.
